Fifty-third session
Second Committee
Agenda item 93 (f)
Sustainable development and international economic cooperation

Draft resolution submitted by the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, Mr. Burak Özügergin (Turkey), on the basis of informal consultations held on draft resolution A/C.2/53/L.33

Implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 49/128 of 19 December 1994, 50/124 of 20 December 1995, 51/176 of 16 December 1996, and 52/188 of 18 December 1997 on the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development,[1]

Also recalling that in operative paragraph 2 of its resolution 52/188, the General Assembly decided to convene a special session for a duration of three days from 30 June to 2 July 1999, at the highest possible level of participation, in order to review and appraise the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development,

Further recalling Economic and Social Council resolution 1998/8 of 23 July 1998 on the review and appraisal of the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the preparations for the special session of the General Assembly for an overall review and appraisal of the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development,[2]

1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Secretary-General on the preparations for the special session of the General Assembly for an overall review and appraisal of the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development;[2]

2. Reaffirms that the special session will be undertaken on the basis of and with full respect for the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development, and that there will be no renegotiations of the existing agreements contained therein;

3. Stresses the need for the effective participation of actors of civil society, particularly non-governmental organizations, in preparation for the special session, as well as the need to ensure appropriate arrangements, taking into account the practice and experience gained at the International Conference on Population and Development, for their substantive contributions to and active involvement in the preparatory meetings and the special session, and invites the President of the General Assembly, in consultation with Member States, to propose to Member States appropriate modalities for their effective involvement in the special session;

4. Requests the Secretary-General to seek extrabudgetary resources to assist developing countries, particularly the least developed countries, in sending representatives to the thirty-third session of the Commission on Population and Development, which is to serve as the preparatory meeting for the special session of the General Assembly, and to the special session of the General Assembly from 30 June to 2 July 1999 on the overall review and appraisal of the implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development;

5. Decides that the thirty-third session of the Commission on Population and Development, meeting as the preparatory committee for the special session, shall be open-ended to allow the full participation of all States;

6. Invites all other relevant organizations and bodies of the United Nations system to contribute, as appropriate, to the special session as well as to its preparation;

7. Decides to invite States members of the specialized agencies that are not members of the United Nations to participate in the work of the special session in the capacity of observers;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its fifty-fourth session a report on the special session;

9. Decides to include an item entitled "Implementation of the Programme of Action of the International Conference on Population and Development" in the provisional agenda of its fifty-fourth session.
